About Project: FAIR

Project: FAIR (Filmmakers Against Illegal Replication) invites filmmakers to create public service announcements that speak out against illegal replication affecting the entertainment industry - illegal copying of movies, video games and music - in ways that will resonate with people of all ages, and with teenagers and young adults in particular.

About VSDA

VSDA (Video Software Dealers Association) is the not-for-profit international trade association of retailers and distributors of movies in the $24 billion home entertainment industry - the trade association for your local video store. VSDA supports a four-pronged approach against illegal copying.
